SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY AND LAW PRECONFERENCE

at the Annual Meeting of the Society for Personality and Social Psychology
San Antonio, Texas – January 19, 2017

Hosted by the University of Nebraska – Lincoln, the 2017 Social Psychology and Law Preconference will include three symposia focused on the following issues of criminal law:

- Hate speech
- Immigration
- Sex offender registration policy
- Justice resolution
- Prejudice

Featured speakers include:

- Michael Zárate
- Rich Wiener
- Mark White
- Joseph Feagin
- Bernhard Leidner
- Jessica Salerno

The Preconference will also include:

- Poster sessions with the latest research in Social Psychology and Law
- 10-minute datablitz presentations from promising scholars
- Breakfast and lunch included with Preconference registration

Preconference registration is currently open. Poster and Datablitz accepted on a rolling basis

Register at: http://meeting.spsp.org/preconferences/law#Registration

Questions? Please contact us at socialpsychandlaw@gmail.com

For more information, visit:
http://meeting.spsp.org/preconferences/law

Sponsored by the University of Nebraska – Lincoln